LINING 'EM OUT

In his effort to keep his players from being tempted by Fed scouts, Dreyfuss has had an injunction issued against John Doe. Funny how that guy gets into everything.

Lurid Lew Hichie, former Cub hurler, is to pitch for Kansas City this year.

"Swat the fly," is not a popular slogan in baseball circles. "Hit 'em where they ain't," listens better.

Don't get excited over the discovery that Connie Mack has insisted that his son study music and cut out baseball. They used to say Connie made a specialty of picking up stars for a song. This may be another of his long-headed plans for the future.

Meltride, Barry and Wagner are big league shortstops who wear protectors under their stockings to save their shins and ankles.

Somewhere arises and reports that Connie Mack slated Danny Murphy for the minors before the latter's jump to the Feds, because Danny panned him after the second game of the last World's Series for not sending a pinch hitter to bat. Inasmuch as Danny Murphy was captain of the Athletics and could have put himself or any pinch hitter in action, but made no move to do it, according to authentic history, we expect the report has the party who did the panning wrong.

The London Sketch printed an illuminating article on baseball when the world-touring pastimes have in sight. It is most interesting, really.

This is the way the Sketch leads us gently by the hands and unfolds its baseball discovery.

Scoring is by runs. The batsman strikes a ball thrown by the pitcher, and one run is gained when he has got the "bases" (corners) and back home again. If the batsman misses three strikes (good deliveries) he is out, but if the pitcher throws four balls that are not "good," the batsman is allowed to go to the first base in quarter way round.

After hitting the ball the batsman must get to the first base before the ball is returned to the fielder there.

Whatever base he reaches remains there till the next batsman makes a chance of getting a run again.

A batsman can get out by being caught, by stepping out of his ground when batting and in many other ways.

Though there are nine men on a side the inning is over when three are out.

Each side generally plays nine innings.

CAMBRIDGE WINS EASY VICTORY FROM OXFORD

Annual Eight Oared Race from Putney to Mortlake Covered in 20 Minutes 23 Seconds.

(By Lensed Wire to Evening Herald.) London, March 28.—The Cambridge university crew today won easily from Oxford in the annual eight oared race from Putney to Mortlake on the Thames. The distance, four miles, was covered in the fast time of 20 minutes 23 seconds. Cambridge crossed the line 4½ lengths in the lead.

The Cambridge crew had been the favorite throughout the training season and justified the predictions that it would win by making the race a procession from start to finish.

A platform on which 150 spectators were standing collapsed during the race and all were thrown into the hold of a barge. Fourteen persons were badly injured.

NEW YORK MAN TO GIVE STADIUM TO PRINCETON

Magnificent Amphitheatre to be Built for College at Cost of $300,000. Will Seat 40,000

(By Lensed Wire to Evening Herald.) Princeton, N. J., March 28.—The announcement was made today that Edgar Palmer of New York, a graduate of the class of 1903, has offered to build a stadium and present it to the university for the use of the athletic association in time to be used for the Yale football game next fall.

The committee on grounds and buildings met today and approved the plan. The board of trustees will formally accept the gift April 9.

The stadium will be built of reinforced concrete in the shape of the letter U and will seat 40,000 persons. The location will be on the southern slope of a field south of the university buildings. The estimated cost is $300,000, to be given entirely by Mr. Palmer. The object of the gift is to increase the endowment and income of the university by giving back into the treasury for scholastic purposes the money now spent annually for the erection of temporary bleachers for big football games.

The field will be used for football and track athletics only.

'SAFETY FIRST' HAS REDUCED INJURIES 20 PERCENT

General Claims Attorney of Santa Fe in Albuquerque this Morning Says Safety Department has Worked Wonders.

LOSS AND DAMAGE MEETING SUCCESSFUL

Judge J. D. M. Hamilton, general claims attorney of the Santa Fe Railway company, was in Albuquerque this morning on his way from the company's loss and damage meeting at San Diego to his home in Topeka. Judge Hamilton is the organizer of the Santa Fe's department of safety, and has conducted a number of safety habit rallies for employees in Albuquerque.

"Our safety department was organized two years ago," Judge Hamilton said, "and in that time we have reduced our personal injuries twenty per cent. The number of fatal accidents to our employees has been reduced thirty per cent. This showing is the result of the safety habit which our employees are getting. Habit is a great force in human affairs, and we are training our employees to get the habit of carelessness. The fact that it is just as easy to be careful as it is to be careless, when they once get into the habit of it."

"The Santa Fe, having installed modern safety appliances, and safety committees having been organized by employees on all the divisions, Judge Hamilton gave it as his opinion that in a short time accidents as a result of carelessness would be the exception rather than the rule on the Santa Fe."

Judge Hamilton said that 125 officials attended the San Diego loss and damage meeting, which adjourned Friday. Reports at the meeting showed that in the five years the campaign has been in progress, the reduction of the loss and damage item has been from three per cent of the company's earnings to ninety-nine hundredths of one per cent.

At the loss and damage meeting the following statement was adopted as the policy of the company regarding the subjects under consideration:

"That it may be in fact a good-service movement, the Santa Fe loss and damage organization will direct its efforts toward locating the causes of trouble and devising practical means of improvement."

"Special attention will be given to equipment conditions to the end that all cars may be suitable for the loading intended. Much thought also will be given to uniform and better methods of loading, stowing and bracing freight, both that which is loaded by carrier's employees, and the carload freight which is almost universally loaded, stowed and secured in the cars by shippers."

"Matters of general interest will be brought to the attention of the proper officers and organizations of shippers and receivers of freight, thus promoting interest on the part of their membership, and also on the part of their shippers in the matter of properly preparing, packing and marking freight for shipment."

"The difficulties attending each commodity will be specialized to the end that each of the causes contributing to depreciation in value during transit may be found and dealt with in a practical manner, each department contributing its essential part to successful handling and delivery."

"It is gratifying to the Santa Fe management that the company's customers generally are in sympathy with these efforts, and a large majority of them take kindly to the information which is constantly reaching them, believing that the movement is in the interest of all concerned—producer, shipper, carrier receiver and consumer."

Other officials here on their way from San Diego were F. S. Brooks of

IF CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH AND SICK

Look Mother! If Tongue Is Coated, Cleanse the Bowels With "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups. Beware of cheap imitations. The genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Kansas City, general live stock agent; J. F. Jarrell of Topeka, publicity agent; T. S. Stevens of Topeka, electrical engineer, and J. H. Ness, agent at Wichita, R. S. Goodrich of Albuquerque, who attended the meeting, will be home Monday.

HORSEMAN PAYS FARE OF FOUR STOWAWAYS

Another car of horses from the Juarez track went through this morning on the Santa Fe, consigned to Baltimore, Md. Three stowaways were found in the car at San Marcial and Stationmaster J. E. Sinclair unearthed another when the car got here.

The man in charge of the car decided that he needed them in his business, and ransomed them by paying fare for the quartette. It cost him $40.20.

INVESTORS ANXIOUS TO GET HOLD OF BERNALILLO BONDS

Bids were opened today at the county treasurer's office for an issue of school bonds amounting to $2,000 for the Rancho de Atrisco district.

The issue will be awarded to Keeler Bros., Denver bankers, who bid par, accrued interest, a premium of $1 and agreed to print the bonds. The bid is an excellent one.

Other bids received were as follows: Canney Foster & Co., Denver, $501.25 for each $500 bond. Wm. E. Sweet & Co., Denver, $491.25 for each $500, less $25 for printing bonds.

N. E. Walpole Pueblo, Colo., $2,822.50 for issue.

J. N. Wright & Co., $918 for each $1,000 and blank bonds. Assistant County Treasurer Matt Supple said today that bids had come in for those and similar issues from all over the country. It is said that the income tax law, under which county and municipal bonds are exempt from tax, has quickened the market for such bonds to a great extent.

SELLING LIQUOR TO INDIAN CAUSE OF GRIEF AT TAOS

Dozen Indictments Said to be Likely When Federal Grand Jury Meets in Santa Fe April 6th.

When the federal grand jury for New Mexico meets in Santa Fe April 6 it will be called on to consider a dozen cases of violation of the law against selling liquor to Indians, alleged to have been committed on the Taos reservation, and a great number of alleged perjury cases that have grown out of the liquor law violations.

Considerable excitement and certain elements of trouble have developed in Taos and the neighborhood of the reservation as a result of the liquor cases.

The alleged offenders are said to be members of the religious sect known as the Penitentes, who are more or less numerous about Taos. When United States Commissioner F. T. Cheatham heard the charges against the alleged sellers of liquor to the Indians, shoals of Penitentes came into court to swear that the defendants were not anywhere near the scene of the alleged violations. After all was set up, and the commissioner thought he saw signs of wholesale perjury going on.

It is said that the Penitentes also came to the hearing in numbers to denigrate and as soon as he sent the Cheatham, however, don't easily intimidated, and as soon as had sent the liquor cases on their way to the federal grand jury he lost no time in laying the foundation for perjury prosecutions. During the progress of the hearings a number of Indian police were on the scene, prepared to cope with any trouble that might arise.

The chief defendant among the alleged liquor law violators was Dalia Cordova, known as the King of the Penitentes. His case is among those to be considered by the grand jury.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally If You Eat Meat Regularly.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of swelling, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; mix a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
